Introduction

Accommodation aims to give beginner ESOL learners the language and skills they need to access and talk about housing.

This teacher's pack consists of teacher's notes and classroom resources.

The pack provides a minimum of 9 hours of learning through a series of three linked units. Each unit has two 90 minute lessons which can each be used as a standalone. Extension activities are suggested giving learners further practice and for use in follow-up sessions.

The resource is suitable for community ESOL and ESOL delivered in adult learning or FE. Internet access and projection equipment is not needed, although a data projector would be an advantage.

Level: Entry 1 / National 2 in Scotland / CEFR A1

The materials have been differentiated so that they are accessible to pre-Entry 1 learners through to emerging E2 learners.

Overview

The three units in Accommodation are:

Unit 1: Moving home

Lesson 1: Finding a new home introduces the vocabulary for different types of accommodation and practises reading and writing skills in the context of reading adverts for houses and completing a tenancy application form.

Lesson 2: Looking around a new home introduces vocabulary for rooms and furniture and develops learners' listening skills in the context of listening to an estate agent showing a tenant around a property.

Unit 2: Where do you live?

Lesson 1: Where do you live? focuses on learners' own accommodation, practising the names for different kinds of housing, and writing addresses.

Lesson 2: Writing about where you live develops reading and writing skills through the context of reading and writing an email about a new home.

Unit 3: Problems in the home

Lesson 1: Problems in the home deals with the language needed to report a repair.

Lesson 2: Problems renting practises reading skills in the context of finding solutions to common tenants' problems.

Unit 1: Moving homeLesson 1: Finding a new home*Introduction

This lesson introduces the vocabulary for different kinds of accommodation. Learners practise reading adverts for houses and filling in simplified tenancy application forms.

Time: Approximately 90 minutes. Timings are flexible and teachers can cut activities and add extension activities as required.

Aims

- To introduce the names of different kinds of accommodation.
- To develop learners' reading skills in the context of reading housing adverts.
- To build learners' confidence in simple form-filling.

Objectives

All learners will be able to:

- Understand the different kinds of accommodation such as rented, council, housing association etc.
- Scan housing adverts for specific information.
- Understand key details of housing adverts.
- Complete a simplified tenancy application form.

Some learners may be able to:

- Use the names for different kinds of accommodation.
- Give reasons for wanting to move house.

Preparation

You will need:

- Worksheet 1 – Housing images: 1 copy to display for the Warmer.
- Worksheets 2 - 3 – Cards showing example residents: 1 copy cut up and stuck around the classroom, for Activity 1.
- Worksheet 4 – Types of accommodation cards: 1 set cut up for Activity 1.
- Sticky tack or sticky tape for Activity 1.
- Worksheet 5 – Housing adverts and images: 1 copy per learner, cut up, for Activity 2.
- Worksheet 6 – Reading task: 1 copy per learner for Activity 3.

- Red / green cards for Activity 3 (optional).
- Worksheet 7 – Information about Amrita: 1 copy per learner for Activity 6.
- Highlighters for Activity 6 (optional).
- Worksheet 8 – Tenancy application form: 2 copies per learner for Activity 6.

For the extension / homework tasks:

- Worksheet 9 – Case studies cards: 1 per small group, cut up, for Extension 1.

Finding a new homeWarmer (10 mins)

- Display the images from Worksheet 1 and elicit what they show (houses in different countries).
- Write on the board 'accommodation' split into chunks and jumbled up and ask the learners to put the chunks in the right order to find the topic of the session.
- Ask learners what kinds of accommodation they know and write their suggestions on the board.
- If learners are happy to, ask them to tell the class what kind of accommodation they live in.

Activity 1: Types of accommodation (10 mins)

- Show learners the residents cards stuck around the room and explain that these people are describing where they live but some of the words are missing.
- Hand out the cards from Worksheet 4, with 1 between 2 in a large group, and ask the learners to find the person who lives in this kind of accommodation and stick the card next to them.
- Make sure the learners read all of the descriptions and monitor to check the labels are matched correctly.
- Write the kinds of accommodation on the board and use concept questions to check understanding, e.g. 'Is it private?' 'Who do they pay the money to?' etc.
- Model and practise the pronunciation.

Differentiation:

- Pair weaker and stronger readers together.

Activity 2: Rental housing adverts - gist reading (10 mins)

- Tell the class that Sumit and Amrita want to rent a different house. Elicit the different places they can look for places to rent (adverts in estate agents, Internet, newspapers etc.).
- Hand out the adverts from Worksheet 5 and explain that these are three adverts they are looking at.
- Hand out the images and ask the learners to match the images to the adverts.

Activity 3: Rental housing adverts – detailed reading (10 mins)

- Hand out Worksheet 6 and ask learners to read the adverts carefully and tick the correct column in the table.

- Ask the learners to check their answers in pairs and discuss which property they think will be good for Sumit and Amrita and why.
- Check answers and discuss as a class.

Answers: a)1 b)1&2 c)1&3 d 2 e)2 f)3 g)2 h)3 i)1&3

Differentiation:

- Pair weaker readers with stronger readers for extra support.
- Highlight key words in the adverts given to beginner readers so they can easily find the relevant information.

Activity 4: Vocab (10 mins)

- Ask learners to complete Task 2 on Worksheet 6, finding the words in the adverts which match the meanings.
- Check answers in pairs and as a class.

Answers: 1. furnished; 2. part-furnished; 3. rear; 4. couple; 5. terraced house; 6. detached house

Differentiation:

- Early finishers can test each other with one learner giving the definition and their partner trying to remember the word.

Activity 5: Numeracy (15 mins)

- Focus on Advert 1 and ask how much the rent is.
- Ask how much the rent is every month. If necessary, guide learners to work out the calculation by asking how many weeks are in a month and what calculation they need to do.
- Ask learners to work out the monthly rent of the other properties and check as a class.

Differentiation:

- Learners with weaker numeracy skills can do the calculation using the calculators on their mobiles. Learners with stronger numeracy skills can do it without a calculator and check.

Activity 6 – Tenancy application form (15 mins)

- Ask the learners what Sumit and Amrita need to do after they have chosen the property (fill in a tenancy application form).
- Hand out Worksheet 7 where Amrita is talking about herself and ask the learners to highlight / underline the following information:
 - Her first name and family name.
 - Her date of birth.
 - Her nationality and the date she came to the UK.
 - Her address, telephone number and email address.
 - Who she lives with.
 - If she smokes.
 - If she has a pet.

- Hand out Worksheet 8 and explain that Amrita is filling in the form.
- Ask the learners to transfer the highlighted information to the correct place on the form.
- Ask the learners to complete another copy of the form with their own information.

Differentiation:

- Ask weaker learners to complete Section 1 only and focus on the need to write one letter in each box.

Cooler – (10 mins)

- Ask the learners to write down three words they want to remember from today's lesson and share with a partner.

Tip:

- Start the next lesson by asking the learners if they can remember these three words.

Extension 1 – Choosing accommodation for different people

- Put learners in small groups and give each group a set of cards from Worksheet 9.
- Ask the groups to discuss what type of accommodation would be good for them and why.
- Discuss as a class.

Extension 2 – Reasons for leaving accommodation

- Ask small groups to think of different reasons why people want to move house.
- Share ideas as a class.
- Here are some possible ideas you might want to elicit:
 - The rent is very expensive.
 - We're having a baby. We need a house with more bedrooms.
 - It's a bad area.
 - My contract is finished.
 - I'm changing job.
 - I need to live close to my family.
 - I need to live close to my work.

Homework

For further practice of form-filling, ask the learners to complete the online self-access exercises available here:

- Ask the learners to use the list to label the furniture in the picture.
- If possible, display the image using a data projector to check the activity and check pronunciation.

Differentiation:

- Give weaker learners picture dictionaries to find any words they don't know.
- Stronger learners can practise spelling the words using Look, Say, Cover, Write, Check and then test a partner. A table is provided for this on Worksheet 7 in Additional resources.

- Hand out the transcript of Audio 1 and play it again and ask the learners to underline all the sentences using 'there'.
- Hand out Worksheet 6 and work through the activities.

 - Choose words to practise spelling using the Look Say Cover Write Check table on Worksheet 7.
 - Test a partner by showing them an image, asking them to write the word, and checking they have written it correctly.
 - Play a game with the cards image side up in the middle and learners take it in turns to take a card and write the word. If they write it correctly they keep the card; otherwise they return it to the bottom of the pile. The winner is the learner with the most cards once they are all gone.
 - Beginner readers can use two sets word side up and match the words which are the same, or play 'snap', or sort them into groups of words which start with the same letter.

Extension 2

- Hand out Worksheet 8 and ask learners to complete the wordsearch.

Homework

- Ask learners to practise spelling words from today's session using the Look Say Cover Write Check table on Worksheet 7 in preparation for a spelling test next lesson.

² 'Back to the board': In two teams, the first member of the first team comes and sits with their back to the board. Write a word on the board behind them and draw an illustration if needed. The team describes the word without saying the word for the person at the front to guess for a point for their team. Continue with the next learner from the next team and so on.

Agent: So here we are at No. 13 Park Road. As you can see, there's a garage and a small garden in front of the house. Now, if we go inside, the first room we come to is a lovely, large living room. The house is part-furnished so here you can see there's a sofa, a chair and a small table.

Arta: Oh, there isn't a TV.

Agent: No. You need to buy that. Next, the kitchen is new with everything you need – cooker, washing machine, fridge...

Besim: Is there a freezer?

Agent: Yes, it's here. Now, let's go upstairs. There are three bedrooms: bedroom 1 with a double bed and two smaller bedrooms with single beds.

Besim: But there aren't any curtains.

Agent: Well, the house is part-furnished, but I can get curtains. Anyway, here on the right is the bathroom with a new bath and shower. There's also a large attic at the top of the house, and a cellar under the kitchen.

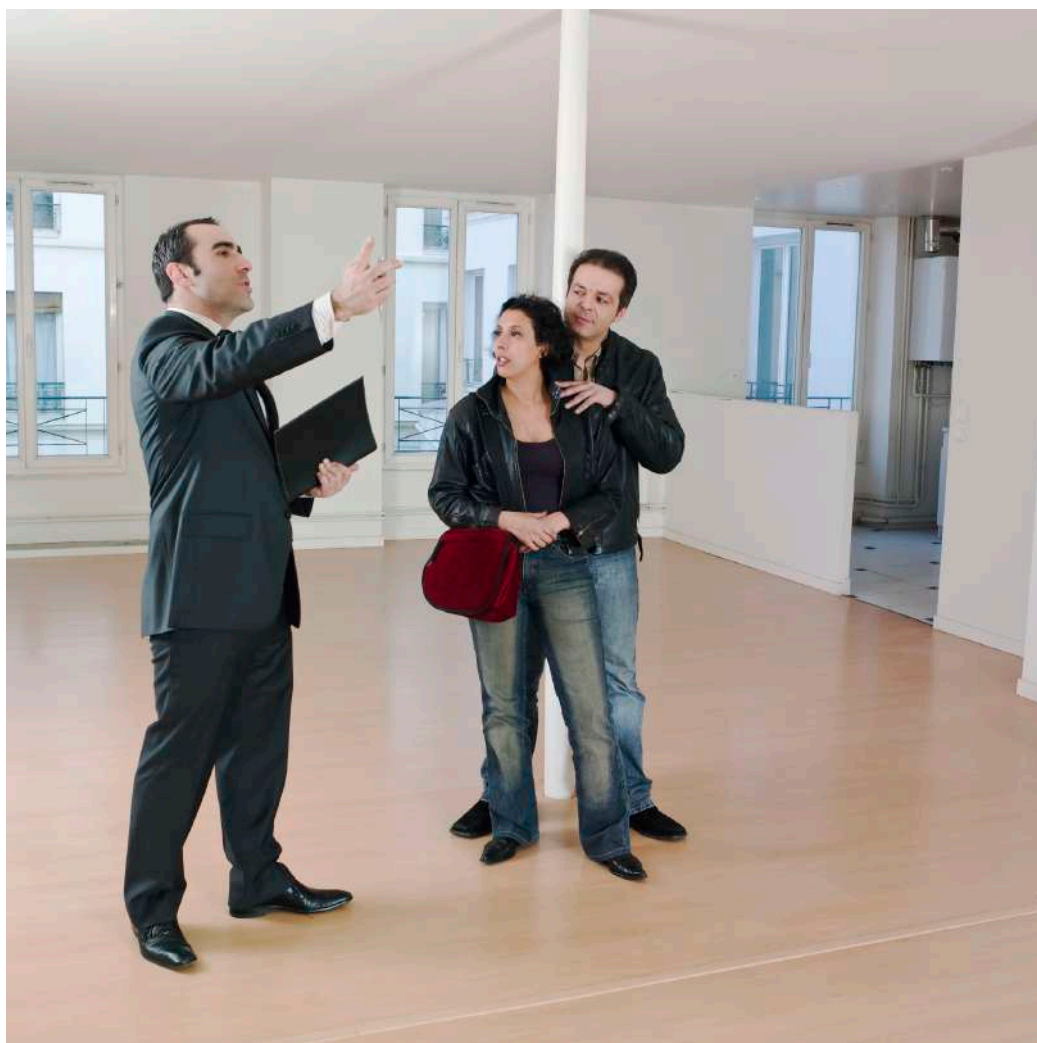

Arta: Are there any problems with the neighbours?

Agent: No. It's a very quiet area.

Unit 2: Where do you live?Lesson 1: Where do you live?*Introduction

This lesson consolidates vocabulary from Unit 1. The focus is on different types of accommodation and differentiated literacy work based around addresses. There is also the opportunity to practise prepositions of place and numeracy work embedded in a listening activity recognising house numbers, phone numbers and postcodes.

Time: Approximately 90 minutes. Timings are flexible and teachers can cut activities and add extension activities as required.

Aims

- To build confidence in describing different kinds of houses.
- To practise writing names and addresses on an envelope.

Objectives

All learners will be able to:

- Say what kind of house they live in (detached, flat etc.).
- Write their address on an envelope.
- Identify numbers when listening to addresses and telephone numbers.
- Use in, on and at when saying where they live.

Some learners might be able to:

- Write the names for different kinds of houses.

PreparationYou will need:

- A large map of the local area and small stick-it notes (optional) for the Warmer.
- Worksheet 1 – Types of accommodation: 1 per learner for Activity 1.
- Worksheets 2-4 – Types of accommodation flashcards: 1 set per class for Activity 1.
- Worksheet 5 – Addresses listening tasks: 1 per learner for Activity 2.
- Audio for Activity 2.
- Mini whiteboards for Activity 3 (optional).
- Cards with the learners' own addresses on for Activity 4.
- Selection of different forms needing names and addresses (optional) for Activity 4.
- Envelopes for the Cooler.

For the extension / homework tasks:

- Worksheet 6 – Abbreviations cards: 1 set per pair for Extension 1.
- Local street / place names – photographs of, or typed and printed onto large cards, for Extension 2.

Where do you live?Warmer (10 mins)

- Display the map of the local area and ask the class to find on it the place where they study and other relevant places such as the nearest bus stop, a local supermarket or college nursery.
- If you're happy to, tell the class where you live, just giving the name of the general area.
- Write your name on a stick-it note and stick it on the relevant part of the map.
- Ask the learners to do the same if they are happy to.

Activity 1: Types of accommodation (15 mins)

- Handout Worksheet 1 with the words folded over and only the images showing and ask pairs if they know the names for the different kinds of accommodation.
- Use the flashcards from Worksheets 2-4 to elicit and drill the words.
- Ask learners to unfold their sheets and match the words and pictures.
- Use the flashcards to play 'Newspaper bash'³.
- Ask learners to tell their partner and the class what kind of house they live in.

Differentiation:

- Early finishers can practise spelling the words using Look Say Cover Write Check and give their partners a spelling test.

Activity 2: Listening to addresses and telephone numbers (10 mins)

- Hand out Worksheet 5 and explain that the learners will listen to someone giving their address.
- For each question they need to circle the answer they hear.
- Play the audio for the learners to complete the worksheet and check with a partner, repeating the audio if necessary.
- Write the address on the board for learners to check.

Audio transcript / answers:

My name's Sara Ahmed. I live at 19 North Street, Darlington, EC3 2XF, telephone number 01632 960458.

Activity 3: Giving your mobile number (10 mins)

- Write Sara's mobile number on the board: 07700 900613.

³ 'Newspaper Bash' (to be used with caution): Learners stand in a circle holding the flashcards in front of them. You name one of the pictures, e.g. 'detached house' and the learner who is holding that picture must quickly name a different picture and so on. If any learner is too slow tap them lightly on the shoulder with a rolled up piece of paper and that learner then takes the rolled-up paper and the role of the 'basher'.

- Model and practise saying it, marking where to put pauses and eliciting 'double 7'.
- Make up more mobile phone numbers for learners to write on their whiteboards or in their notebooks.
- If learners are happy to, ask them to say their own numbers and then dictate them to a partner.

Activity 4: Writing your name and address (20 mins)

- Write randomly on the board: 'name', 'house number', 'street', 'town', 'postcode'.
- Ask learners to look at the address from Activity 2 and see what comes first. Write '1' next to 'name' and repeat with the rest of the address.
- Ask learners to share whether their country uses the same order, and if not, what it is.
- Put the learners into small groups according to their literacy level and choose appropriate activities for the different groups from this menu:
 - Cut up cards with own addresses on and put them back together and check with a master, cut into lines first and then words.
 - Find and number elements of own addresses according to the numbers on the board.
 - Practise spelling elements of their address using Look Say Cover Write Check and finding mnemonics to help with difficult place names.
 - Practise writing addresses in capitals and lower case.
 - Fill in different forms with different formats with names and addresses.
 - Dictate names and addresses to a partner.

Differentiation:

- Teach stronger learners 'county' and 'country' as well and include these in their practise activities.

Activity 5: Prepositions of place - in, on, at (15 mins)

- Write on the board: 'I live ____ number 19', 'I live ____ North Street', 'I live ____ Darlington' and ask volunteers to come to the board and write the missing prepositions in the gaps.
- Ask pairs to formulate a rule for when to use which preposition (at for house numbers, on for streets and in for towns).
- Ask the learners to write the three prepositions on separate pieces of scrap paper.
- Orally give different elements of addresses and ask the learners to hold up the correct card according to which preposition goes with it.

- Ask learners to tell their partners and the class about where they live using the model sentences.

Cooler – (10 mins)

- Ask the learners to address an envelope with own name and address.
- If your organisation can fund posting these it can be confidence-building for learners to see that their addressed envelope reaches them.
- In the next lesson learners can compare when their letter arrived.

Extension 1 – Abbreviations

- Hand out the cards from Worksheet 6 and explain that these are all words they might see in street names.
- Ask pairs to match the words with their abbreviations.
- Display the abbreviations only and ask pairs to practise saying the long forms.

Extension 2 – Local street / place names

- Use the photos or cards to practise the pronunciation of local place names.
- Play games to practise listening to the place names such as sticking the cards round the room, saying one of the places and the learners have to go to that place, or 'Hit the Board'⁴.

Homework

- Ask learners to photograph on their mobiles any place names in their local areas that they'd like to practise the pronunciation and spelling of in the next session.
- Ask learners to complete the online self-access tasks available here:
<https://esol.britishcouncil.org/content/learners/skills/speaking/talk-about-your-house>.

⁴ 'Hit the board': Show the names on the board. Learners stand in two columns facing the board. You say one of the words and the two students at the front of each line race to be the first to hit the right one to get a point for their team. They then move to the back of the line and repeat with the next two learners, and so on.

Unit 2: Where do you live?Lesson 2: Writing about where you live*Introduction

This is a reading and writing lesson where learners first read an email describing someone's new flat and then write an email about where they live. There is also an explanation of the Language Experience approach to use with beginner readers and writers.

Time: Approximately 90 minutes. Timings are flexible and teachers can cut activities and add extension activities as required.

Aims

- To consolidate understanding of language for describing accommodation.
- To develop reading skills.
- To develop writing skills.

Objectives

All learners will be able to:

- Read an email and understand the gist and key details.
- Plan writing using a mind map.
- Write an email using a writing frame.

Some learners may be able to:

- Write an email about where they live without a writing frame.
- Use there is and there are and housing vocabulary with greater confidence and accuracy.

Preparation

You will need:

- Worksheet 1 – Picture of Amrita and Sumit: 1 copy to display for Activity 1.
- Worksheet 2 – Email and reading tasks: 1 per learner for Activities 1, 2 and 3.
- Worksheet 3 – Discussion prompts: 1 card per small group, or displayed on the board, for Activity 3.
- Worksheet 4 – Mind map: 1 per learner, for Activity 4.
- Worksheet 5 – Writing frames: 1 frame per learner for Activity 5.

Unit 2: Where do you live?Lesson 2: Writing about where you live*Warmer – Furniture vocab review (anagrams) (10 mins)

- Write the names of some items of furniture on the board with the letters jumbled for pairs or teams to unscramble.

Differentiation:

- Lower level learners would benefit from having the letters on cards.

Activity 1 – Pre-reading and reading for gist (15 mins)

- Show the picture of Sumit and Amrita on Worksheet 1 to set the context.
- Explain that they are living in a new house now and invite the class to predict what their house is like, asking prompt questions such as: 'Do you think it's a house or a flat?' 'How many bedrooms do you think there are?' etc. and note their predictions on the board.
- Hand out Worksheet 2 and ask the learners to read Amrita's email quickly and see if Amrita likes the house.
- Ask the learners to read the email again to check their predictions.
- Ask volunteers to come to the board and tick / correct the predictions.

Differentiation:

- Pair weaker and stronger readers together for extra support.

Activity 3 – Reading an email (detailed reading) (15 mins)

- Ask learners to complete the true/false questions and check answers in pairs and as a class.

Differentiation:

- Pair weaker and stronger readers together for extra support.

Activity 3 – Pre-writing discussion (10 mins)

- Hand out the prompt questions from Worksheet 3, or display them on the board and ask the learners to discuss in small groups.
- Monitor and make a note of any errors to invite learners to self-correct after the activity.
- Invite individuals to share with the class what they found out from others in their groups.

Tip:

- If learners aren't comfortable talking about where they live, for example if they are homeless or living in temporary accommodation, allocate roles in the groups giving these learners the role of asking the questions or taking notes.

Activity 4 – Planning (10 mins)

- Hand out the mind map on Worksheet 4 and ask learners to make notes on the different branches about their own houses.
- Emphasise that at this stage learners are just thinking about what to write and don't need to write in complete sentences or check spellings.

Activity 5 – Writing an email (20 minutes)

- Ask learners to reply to Amrita's email using one of the writing frames on Worksheet 5.
- As a class, agree a checklist of things to check for when proof-reading, such as there is, capital letters, full stops, spelling etc. and write this on the board.
- Ask learners to check their own writing and that of a partner and produce a final draft but not putting their names on.

Differentiation:

- Give different learners a different writing frame according to the level of support they need.

- Work with beginner writers using a Language Experience approach using the following procedure:

1. Ask the learner the questions from Worksheet 3 and scribe their answers on card.
2. Read the text together, stopping and focussing on individual words, checking meanings, eliciting the names of punctuation and discussing why it is used, as appropriate.
3. Make a copy of the text.
4. Cut the card into sentences and ask the learner to reorder and check with the copy.
5. One by one, cut the sentences into words and ask the learner to reorder and check with the copy.
6. Ask the learner to copy the text or write the sentences from memory using the copy to help them.

Cooler – Reading peers' texts (10 mins)

- Collect the final drafts from Activity 5, shuffle and distribute to pairs.
- Ask the pairs to read the texts together and decide whose house is being described, writing their own names and their guess at the writer's name at the bottom and then passing on to another pair to read.
- Return the texts to their writers and ask them to read them to the class and say who guessed correctly.

Extension 1 – Error correction

- Collect the learners' writing and mark it using a marking code, for example 'sp' = spelling, 'g' = grammar etc.
- Prepare a worksheet taking one sentence from each piece of writing which has an error you'd like to focus on.

- In the next class hand out the worksheet and ask pairs to find and correct the errors.
- Check as a class.
- Return the work and ask the learners to correct the errors indicated with the code and redraft if necessary.

Extension 2 – Class display or reader

- Ask the learners to photograph their house on their mobiles and text or email it to you to print off and stick on their writing.
- If you have class access to computers the learners could word process their texts and add the picture.
- Use their texts to make a class display or reader for each learner.
- Use the display or reader for follow-up activities such as reading comprehension tasks, or numeracy tasks around data handling. For example, learners could read the texts to find how many bedrooms each learner's house has and then present the results as a bar chart.

Homework

- Ask learners to complete the online self-access tasks available here:
<https://esol.britishcouncil.org/content/learners/skills/reading/joanna's-living-room>

Our new house

Hi Farida,

Thank you for your email.

I love my new house.

It's a terraced house.

I live with my husband, Sumit.

There are five rooms: a living room, a kitchen, a bathroom and two bedrooms.

There's a small garden behind the house.

My favourite room is the living room because it's very big and light. There are two big windows. There's a sofa and a TV and a big mirror. There are lots of plants and flowers.

It's a quiet area and the neighbours are very friendly.

What's your house like?

Write to me soon,

Love from Amrita
