

Resource B

How do children celebrate their birthday in your country?	Tell us about a birthday tradition you know of from another country.
Do you think children's birthdays are different now than in the past? Why?	Do you think it is important to celebrate birthdays? Why?
In your country, are there special ages that people celebrate, for example 18, 21, 100?	In your country, are there special songs, games or traditions that happen at a birthday party?
Do you like to celebrate your birthday? Why / why not?	Do you think it is important to give an expensive present? Why do you think this?

Resource C

I took Max to his friend George's birthday party.

Max felt shy, so I decided to stay with him.

Max gave George a card and present.

There were lots of children from school at the party.

Max soon wanted to play with the other children.

They all played 'Pass the Parcel'.

The children had some party food.

George's dad made a cake.

Everyone sang 'Happy Birthday'.

George blew out the candles and made a wish.

George gave Max a party bag with sweets and toys in.

Resource D1

Fill in the gaps. Use the past simple of the verb in brackets.

Yesterday, I _____ (to take) my nephew, Max, to his friend George's birthday party. When we _____ (to arrive), Max _____ (to feel) shy, so I _____ (to decide) to stay with him. First, he _____ (to give) George his card and present. There _____ (to be) lots of children from school there, so Max soon _____ (to want) to join in. They _____ (to play) lots of games, but Max's favourite _____ (to be) 'Pass the Parcel'. After playing games, the children _____ (to have) some party food - there _____ (to be) sandwiches, fruit, cakes, sausage rolls and lots of other delicious things. George's dad _____ (to make) a birthday cake in the shape of a train. It _____ (to have) five candles on it because it _____ (to be) George's fifth birthday. We all _____ (to sing) 'Happy Birthday'. He _____ (to blow) out the candles and _____ (to make) a wish. At home time, George _____ (to give) Max a party bag. Inside there _____ (to be) a slice of cake and some small gifts and sweets. Everyone _____ (to have) a great time!

Resource D2

Fill in the gaps. Use the past simple.

gave	blew	was	were	made	had	felt wanted	arrived	decided	played	sang	took

Yesterday, I _____ (to take) my nephew, Max, to his friend George's birthday party. When we _____ (to arrive), Max _____ (to feel) shy, so I _____ (to decide) to stay with him. First, he _____ (to give) George his card and present. There _____ (to be) lots of children from school there, so Max soon _____ (to want) to join in. They _____ (to play) lots of games, but Max's favourite _____ (to be) 'Pass the Parcel'.

After playing games, the children _____ (to have) some party food - there _____ (to be) sandwiches, fruit, cakes, sausage rolls and lots of other delicious things. George's dad _____ (to make) a birthday cake in the shape of a train. It _____ (to have) five candles on it because it _____ (to be) George's fifth birthday. We all _____ (to sing) 'Happy Birthday'. He _____ (to blow) out the candles and _____ (to make) a wish. At home time, George _____ (to give) Max a party bag. Inside there _____ (to be) a slice of cake and some small gifts and sweets. Everyone _____ (to have) a great time!

Resource D3

Fill in the gaps. Use the past simple.

gave	was	made	had
wanted	played	were	took

Yesterday, I _____ (to take) my nephew, Max, to his friend George's birthday party.

First, he _____ (to give) George his card and present. There _____ (to be) lots of children from school there, so Max soon _____ (to want) to join in. They _____ (to play) lots of games, but Max's favourite _____ (to be) 'Pass the Parcel'. After playing games, the children _____ (to have) some party food.

George's dad _____ (to make) a birthday cake in the shape of a train. It _____ (to have) five candles on it because it _____ (to be) George's fifth birthday.

At home time, George _____ (to give) Max a party bag. Inside there _____ (to be) a slice of cake and some small gifts and sweets. Everyone _____ (to have) a great time!