

My Job

Hello, today I'm going to talk to you about my job. I'm a teacher and I work at a college of further education. My job is a permanent job, which means it's not just for a short period of time, but it's not a full-time job because a full-time job is five days a week and I work four days a week. I don't work on Mondays, so my job is part-time. But my job isn't nine to five either because I have to work in the evenings. On Tuesday and Thursday I have an evening class. I really like my evening class but I don't enjoy working in the evening because I get home too late. Some of the teachers at my college are employed through an agency, but I'm not. I'm directly employed by the college, which means my pay and conditions are slightly better: for example I get better holidays. I really like my job. I find it quite interesting to meet new people all the time, and it's quite well paid. How about you? Have you got a job, or are you looking for a job? Why not tell us about it?
